ABSTRACT	In collaboration with the KFUM's (YMCA) social workspace The Parasol, we have designed Vestergade, a street in Vejle, as a space for people with drug addictions to gather. This focuses on the welfare of the addicts and functions in an open and transparent way so that the local community of shops and residents are engaged and can offer support to the addicts in a safe way. The Parasol is a social café that offers an alcohol and drug free place for socially vulnerable people. It offers activities that includes rehabilitation efforts for all ages, sexes and ethnicities. The café is primarily run by volunteers.
