ABSTRACT	The Host Nation Support Guidelines are defining what a state in Europe, a region or a city has to have in place / has to have prepared in order to be able to receive international assistance in any kind of a disaster case. It explains what has to happen to make international assistance effective and smooth. The HNS can be seen as a minimum requirement on which you build up integrative measures in case of international assistance use. The current guidelines is from 2012/2013, a new version is expected around 2020.
